

May 3, 1978

Howard Cutler

Services for Howard W. Cutler, 82, Claremont area farmer, were held at 2 p.m., Thursday, April 27, at the Claremont Methodist Church with the Rev. Robert Brown, and the Rev. Brad Carver, grandson of the deceased from Marshall, Minn., officiating.

Burial was in the Groton Union Cemetery under the direction of Paetznick - Garness Funeral Chapel.

Mrs. Robert Thompson was organist, and Mrs. Lincoln Gibbs was pianist. Rodney Barnes and Ronald Odland sang two duets, "Work for the Night is Coming" and "Amazing Grace."

A prayer service was held Wednesday evening at the church in Claremont.

Honorary casket bearers were Dean, Wayne, Kay, Val and Gary Cutler, David Saunders, Gerald, Robert, Don, George, Jack, Jerry and John Snyder, and William Wigdahl.

Active casket bearers were Dan, Bruce, Steve, Sherm, Kent and Loren Cutler.

Mr. Cutler was dead on arrival Tuesday, April 25, at Dakota Midland Hospital.

Howard William Cutler was born October 4, 1895, at Claremont. He lived in that area all of his life. He married Sybil Bibler June 29, 1922, at Kankakee, Ill.

He was a member of the Board of Trustees of the Claremont United Methodist Church, and had served on the township board, the Claremont school board, and was a charter member of the Brown-Marshall Soil Conservation District.

Survivors include his widow; four sons, Keith, Dale, Ver] and Lyle, all of Claremont; two daughters, Mrs. Ronald (Ann) Carver of Marshall, Minn., and Mrs. William (Mary Lynn) James of Houghton; two brothers, Frank of Bentonville, Ark., and his twin brother Homer, Claremont; two sisters, Mrs. David (Edna) Saunders of Houston, Tex., and Mrs. Vance (Imogene) Weaver of Buffalo, Minn.; and 27 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by one brother and two sisters.